

Clemson Young Alumni Council At-Large Member Application Guidelines

The primary mission of Clemson Young Alumni Council (YAC) is to support the goals of the Clemson Alumni Association specifically on matters pertaining to Young Alumni. Clemson YAC exists to connect Young Alumni with the University, assist Young Alumni in the transition from active student to alumnus, facilitate fellowship, personal growth and professional development opportunities for young alumni and formally represent Young Alumni interests to the Clemson Alumni Council.

Primary responsibilities of the Council include:

- General oversight of the programs and initiatives of the YAC
- Organization and promotion of the annual Clemson Fall Band Party
- Promotion, call for, and selection of the annual Young Alumni Roaring Ten Awards
- Serve as Young Alum Clemson Ambassadors in areas represented

A full term of service to the Council as an At-Large member is two years, and the Council meets in-person no fewer than two times annually to conduct its business.

Candidates are sought who meet the following qualifications: a) demonstrates service to Clemson since graduating, b) the desire and vision to advance the goals and objectives of the Council, c) shows leadership qualities and potential, d) has strong work ethic and sound judgement.

A Young Alum as defined by Clemson University Alumni Association, must have graduated in the last ten academic calendar years – with either/or an undergraduate or graduate degree of Clemson University. To be considered for an At-Large position, your graduation year must fall within these guidelines, having graduated in May of 2008 or after.

To apply, complete the application form and include at least one endorsement or letter of recommendation from a third party. All applications must be received by close of business, 5:00pm ET on Wednesday, February 28, 2018.

Each application will be forwarded to the Young Alumni Council Nomination Committee, to be reviewed and screened by its membership.

All applicants will be notified by end of May 2018 with a start date of membership on July 1, 2018.
